- ii. Enclose a declaration of his age (any valid document to support it).
- iii. Furnish a written consent for the presentation from all Co-authors.

Selection Process:

The process starts with the notification by the General Secretary of IPS SZ to all members of the South Zone, at least three months in advance and mentioning the contact details of the Chairman of Awards Committee and the last date for reception of the Papers by the Chairman.

Chairman would constitute a panel of three judges and furnish them with the papers (minus the first page) and guidelines for assessing the manuscript. Based on the evaluation of the judges, a maximum of four of the best papers would be chosen for Podium Presentation during IPSOCON. The paper should have gained a minimum of 50% for being allowed for Podium Presentation. Even when only one paper had been received, it should undergo the process of evaluation.

During presentation at IPSOCON, three floor judges would be evaluating the performance. Scores in manuscript evaluation and of oral presentation would be added and the highest scorer would be the deserving winner of the Award.

Chairman, Awards committee will declare the results during the AGB and the Cash Award and Certificate will be presented by the President, IPS SZB during the Valedictory function.
