

DR D. S. RAJU MEMORIAL PG AWARD FOR BEST PAPER

Sponsors:

Dr. D. S. Raju, a brilliant Psychiatrist from Andhra Pradesh had a luminous and yet a short career. In appreciation of his contributions, the award was sponsored by the IPS SZB.

Award:

So far a certificate has been given to the Winner. The EC during its Kottayam meet has contemplated about creating a Corpus fund and adding a cash award.

Participants:

All PG students in the geographical territory of IPS SZB who satisfy the following qualifications can participate in the Competition:

- First Author should be a PG trainee in Psychiatry from a MCI recognized Institution within the states and union territories under IPS SZ at the time of presenting the paper.
- Previous winners of the Award cannot participate.
- First (Principal) author must present the paper.

Procedure:

The paper should be prepared in accordance with the following guidelines:

- The paper should be prepared in accordance with the 'Instructions to Contributors' published in the Indian Journal of Psychological Medicine.
- The paper must be based on research carried out by the authors and must not have been currently submitted or already published in any scientific journal or presented in other scientific conferences.
- The front page of the paper should include Title, Author's name, Place of work/Institution and corresponding address including telephone no., fax numbers and email id. The second page should contain only the title of the paper (without the names of the authors) and an abstract, not exceeding 200 words. The third page should include the title followed by the full text of the paper.

The Secretaries of the State branch should send by email full text of the paper and the slides presented at the State Conference, without any additions or modifications along with abstract to the Chairman, Awards Committee on or before the date fixed by the Executive Council of IPS-SZB.