Guntur 2023

Dear friends,

Greetings and welcome to IPSOCON 2023.

It's pleasure and privilege to welcome you all to the 56th Annual Conference of IPSOCON 2023. We sincerely thank the IPS South Zone Branch for conferring on us the responsibility of organising the prestigious IPSOCON 2023 in Guntur, Andhra Pradesh.

Guntur is centrally located and it's just 35 kms from Vijayawada, another major city in AP state. The twin cities are well connected to all the major cities of southern states of India. Guntur is often referred as "Land of chillies ." It's a major hub for exports of chilli, cotton and tobacco in Asia.

Guntur is also an important education centre and the nucleus for medical and health services of the state. Guntur is centre for spirituality with good number of famous temples in and around the city. There are few interesting tourist spots with in the reach.

The scientific committee has started it's work well in advance to provide the best academic lectures, interactive sessions and panel discussions. Please make yourself convenient to join us and enjoy the scientifically enriching hospitality and Unique tastes of Andhra cuisine.

Long live IPS !

Thank you,

Dr. I. V. L. Narasimha Rao
Chairman,
Organising Committee

Dr. I. Sarath Chandra

Guntur 2023

About Guntur

"The Land of Chillies"

Known as the Land of Chillies, Guntur is famous for its massive chilli market yard in Asia. It is the third most populous town in Andhra Pradesh located at a distance of 30kms from the newly coined capital Amaravathi.

With a busy industrial scenario, Guntur forms part of the prominent Vishakhapatnam-Guntur Industrial corridor. It is also renowned as a textile and transport hub in India. Once home to numerous great dynasties, the city also takes credit in housing the only Buddhist pilgrimage site in South India - the Nagarjunakonda, and the captivating relics of Amravati Caves. Today, it is more known for its industrial growth in exports of chilli products around the globe. An ideal weekend getaway from Hyderabad, Guntur is sure to entice the history buff and the industry expert in you.

Amaravathi temple

Amaravathi Temple is one of the five Pancharama Kshetras that are sacred to the Hindu god Shiva. The temple is located in Amaravathi town of Palnadu district of Andhra Pradesh. Amareswara Swamy or Amaralingeswara Swamy refers to Lord Shiva in this temple. The temple is situated on the southern bank of Krishna River. The consort of Lord Amareswara Swamy is Bala Chamundika. The Sivalinga at this place is installed and established by Lord Indra

Kondaveedu

Kondaveedu is a place lying about 17 miles from Guntur city adorned with one of the most popular tourist attractions of the region. It houses an ancient fort belonging to 13th Century built by Reddy kings which comprises of 21 magnificent structures.

Situated on the top of the hill, the Kondaveedu fort is source of pure admiration especially for the natural beauty surrounding it. The place also offers an ideal trail for trekking. A group of several temple located at the base of the hillock provides a captivating sight. Kathulabave and Gopunatha Temple are two of the many temples in the area.

Uppalapadu Nature Conservation

A place to admire a large number of endangered species of Birds, Uppalapadu Nature Conservation, is situated in the southern side of the city. This spectacular reserve located near Guntur attracts many local and foreign tourists every year.

Water tanks in the region are a perfect place to enjoy a beautiful spectacle of birds like Spot-Billed Pelicans and Painted Storks. The number of bird species has, however, has reduced in the recent time from 12,000 to 7000.

Mangalagiri

Mangalagiri, a temple town located in Guntur, Seemandhra (Andhra Pradesh). Literally translating to 'The Auspicious Hill', this place is one of the 8 important Mahakshetrams or sacred destinations in India.

Mangalagiri holds huge importance in the Indian culture as it is believed that Lord Vishnu had manifested himself on the very soil of Mangalagiri and Goddess Lakshmi performed penance on the peak of the hill as well. Owing to the legends pertaining to the divine, there is a tremendous footfall of believers here throughout the year.

Kotappakonda Trikutaparvattam

Originally known as Kondakavuru, this place is famously known as Kotappakonda or Trikutaparvattam meaning three-peaked hill which actually lies nearby. Located nearly 25 miles from the city of Guntur, it offers a panoramic view of majestic hills from any direction.

The popular three peaks derive their name from Hindu mythology namely Vishnu, Brahma and Maheswara. Another place worth visiting is Guthikonda Cave which offers quite captivating site to explore. Someswara Swamy Temple lying in the city of Sitanagaram around 16 miles Northeast of the city is another popular place to visit.

Kanaka Durga Temple

The temple of Kanaka Durga the Goddess of power, riches and benevolence and the presiding deity of Vijayawada, is thronged by lakhs of pilgrims for worship during the "Navarathri" festival which is celebrated with Religious fervor, pomp and festivity. The ancient temple of Kanaka Durga, a top the Indrakeeladri hill on the banks of the Sacred river Krishna in Vijayawada, abounds with legends of historical interest.

Sri Vennamuddala Venu Gopala Swamy Temple, Chengiskhanpet, Yadlapau (M), Guntur District

Chengiskhanpet is located on Phirangipuram - Nadendla Road at a distance of 3 kms towards South of Kondaveedu Village in Guntur District. The village is famous for a temple dedicated to Balakrishna called Vennamuddala Venu Gopala Swamy, a rare sculpture of Krishna as a child crawling and holding a butter ball in his right hand, It was said that originally there was a temple for Balakrishna at Kondaveedu built during the Vijayanagar period The temple was in ruins after that time and the idol was buried under the earth to safe guard it from the enemy kings About 180 years back, the idol was found by the farmers of kondaveedu village near the Gopinatha Swamy temple while they were digging for a well.

Undavalli Caves Ananta Padmanabha Swami Temple

A monolithic example of Indian rock-cut architecture, the Undavalli Caves are located in the city of Guntur, Andhra Pradesh. Carved out of a solid sandstone on a hillside, these caves date back to the 4th to 5th centuries and is a paradise for history lovers. One of the preserved monuments of national importance, this attraction was originally the Jain caves and was later converted into a Hindu temple.
